

TULANE LAW SCHOOL SUMMER 2024 SESSION
MASTERS OF JURISPRUDENCE STUDENTS*How to Obtain a Summer 2024 Session Educational Loan:

- 1.) Federal Direct Loan – complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid, (FAFSA, studentaid.gov) for 2023-2024 (if you haven't already) and for 2024-2025. This will help prepare your file not only for summer session, but also for next fall and spring.
- 2.) Complete the Summer Addendum and return to the Law School Financial Aid Office (on page 2 of this sheet). Email it to: finaid@law.tulane.edu ASAP or at the latest, June 6, 2024. Most students need the loan to cover their bill so turn it in ASAP.
- 3.) Summer Session Registration (educational loans are certified for registered students only)
- 4.) Keep an eye on Gibson Online for any other requirements that may be needed in order for federal loans to disburse. <https://gibson.tulane.edu/>

Federal Loans for Summer 2024 Sessions:

Federal loans may not disburse to your Tulane student account until the first day of classes for your summer program. Also, please be aware that the Tulane University Accounts Receivable Office may assess a finance charge if the session begins (and loan disbursements arrive) a month or more after tuition is billed (April 15, 2024 or the middle of the month after you register). When tuition is billed, the bill will be due the following month. Here is the billing schedule <https://studentaccounts.tulane.edu/important-dates> . To borrow a federal loan, you must be enrolled for at least five credit hours and complete/return the Summer 2024 Addendum to our office. Only students who are enrolled in a regular degree program at Tulane will be considered for federal loans through Tulane.

Students who have not yet borrowed the annual $20,500 maximum federal limit for Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loans during 2023-2024, and who have completed a 2023-2024 FAFSA, may apply to borrow the Federal Direct Unsubsidized funds for summer sessions. It may not be enough to cover your costs, so the Federal Direct Graduate Plus Loan may be offered. Students who attended last summer may have already utilized summer unsubsidized loan eligibility from the 2023-2024 aid year. In that case, you must complete the 2024-2025 FAFSA, so that your summer eligibility can be drawn from that. Most students in the Masters of Jurisprudence program will have remaining unsubsidized loan eligibility for the summer session, but may also have to depend on the Graduate Plus Loan for additional expenses. Please note that due to the changes to the 2024-2025 FAFSA due to the FAFSA Simplification Act, schools nation-wide have not yet received ANY 2024-2025 FAFSAs. The Dept. of Education is working on fixing this issue.

Please note that if Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan is not available for all funds needed, your summer federal loan may be, at least in part, the Federal Direct Graduate Plus Loan. This is a credit-based loan; a credit check will be run. The Graduate Plus Loan also has a higher interest rate and origination fee than the unsubsidized loan. Most students try to take only the unsubsidized loan to keep debt to a minimum. (Interest rate prior to July 1, 2024 7.05% Unsubsidized Loan, 8.05% Graduate Plus Loan. Federal Origination fees prior to Oct. 1, 2024, 1.057% Unsubsidized Loan, 4.228% Graduate Plus Loan).
