Before You Begin

Use this form to request reconsideration of Tulane institutional need-based financial aid and federal financial aid because of significant, documented special circumstances. A significant income reduction is generally defined as a decrease of 15% or more from 2024 to 2025.

Important: Submitting this request does not guarantee additional financial aid. Eligibility must be established, all required documentation must be received, and funding must remain available.

File Readiness

- ☐ The 2026–2027 CSS Profile has been submitted and received by Tulane
- ☐ The 2026–2027 FAFSA has been submitted and received by Tulane
- ☐ All documents required for the initial review have been submitted and received by Tulane
- ☐ The student's initial financial aid review has been completed.
- ☐ All outstanding Financial Aid Gibson To Do List items have been submitted.

Request Type

- ☐ Income Reduction or Change
- ☐ Out-of-Pocket Medical Expenses
- ☐ Asset / Home Value / Mortgage Review
- ☐ Other Special Circumstances

Review Process

1 Submit Upload the completed form and all documentation through the Financial Aid Forms Portal.	2 Completeness Check Only completed requests submitted by the deadline are reviewed. The financial aid counseling team may request additional information during review.
3 Eligibility Review Tulane reviews the documented circumstances under institutional and federal policy.	4 Decision Additional funding depends on eligibility and availability of funds.

Federal verification and all outstanding requirements must be completed before Tulane can make changes to FAFSA information.

SECTION 2

Income Reconsideration

2024 Base-Year Income Compared With Actual 2025 Income

Student Name		Tulane ID
---------------------	--	------------------	--

Complete this section when the family experienced a significant income reduction or other material income change. Enter an amount for every item. If none, enter "0"; do not leave a line blank.

Required Documents

- ☐ Signed 2025 federal income tax return, including all schedules
- ☐ All 2025 W-2 and/or 1099 forms
- ☐ Documentation supporting the income change (for example: final pay stub, termination letter, unemployment statement, death certificate including death-related benefit documentation)
- ☐ Written explanation describing the change and the effective date

Income worksheet instructions: The 2024 column must reflect income reported on the 2026–2027 CSS Profile and FAFSA. The 2025 column must accurately reflect the 2025 federal income tax return. An income request is incomplete and cannot be reviewed until the signed 2025 tax return and supporting income documents are on file by the noted deadline.

B. Certification

Please read before signing: Tulane will review the request carefully and may require additional documentation. A review may result in no change, an increase, or another adjustment to the student's financial aid. Additional aid is not guaranteed and remains subject to eligibility and available funding.

I certify that I have read and understand the instructions and conditions of this reconsideration request. All information and documentation provided are true, complete, and honestly presented to the best of my knowledge. I understand that Tulane University may request additional documentation and that incomplete requests cannot be reviewed. I will promptly notify the Tulane University Office of Financial Aid if the family's financial situation changes again or if any information submitted becomes inaccurate.
