

Your 2022–2023 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. The law says that before awarding Federal Student Aid, we may ask you to confirm the information you reported on your FAFSA. To verify that you provided correct information, we will compare your FAFSA with the information on this institutional verification document and with any other required documents. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need to be corrected. You and a parent whose information was reported on the FAFSA must complete and sign this institutional verification document, attach any required documents, and submit the form and other required documents to us. We may ask for additional information. If you have questions about verification, contact us as soon as possible so that your financial aid will not be delayed.

D. Other Information to Be Verified If Applicable

1. Complete this question if someone in the student's parent's household (listed in Section B) received benefits from the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program or SNAP (formerly known as food stamps) any time during the 2019 or 2020 calendar years. SNAP may be known by another name in some states. For assistance in determining the name used in a state, please call 1-800-4FED-AID (1-800-433-3243).

I the student certify that _____, one of the persons listed in Section B of this worksheet, received SNAP benefits in 2019 or 2020. If asked by the student's school, we will provide documentation of the receipt of SNAP benefits during 2019 and/or 2020.

2. Complete this question if the student or spouse, who is a member of the student's household, paid child support in 2020.

The student or spouse, who is a member of the student's household, paid child support in 2020. List below the name of the person who paid the child support, the name of the person to whom the child support was paid, the names of the children for whom child support was paid, and the total annual amount of child support that was paid in 2020 for each child. If asked by the school, we will provide documentation of the payment of child support, such as a copy of the separation agreement or divorce decree showing the amount of child support to be provided, a signed statement from the individual receiving the child support certifying the amount of child support received, or copies of the child support payment checks, money order receipts, or similar records of electronic payments having been made. If you need more space, attach a separate page that includes the student's name and last four digits of their Social Security Number at the top.
